

SARA PELLEGRINI was born in 1968 in Lugano (Ticino, Switzerland). She studied architecture at the High School Polytechnic in Lausanne (CH) and graduated in 1995. Always passionate for photography, from 2004 starts to present her artwork in public exhibitions.

On the one hand she explores the inner worlds, on the other hand her approach is space and architecture related. The intimate artwork ranges from photography, embroidery, cut and sew to the installation in space.

Since 2000 she lives and works as architect and artist in Bellinzona (Ticino-Switzerland).
